4. TABLES FOR AFFILIATE'S DUES, DIRECTORS AND VOTING RIGHT: (continued)

Scope of Organization	Approx. % of State's S/D Represented	Annual Dues	Directors Authorized	Votes Authorized
State	76/100	$100	4	4
State	51/75	$ 75	3	3
Regional or area	26/50	$ 50	2	2
Regional or area	5/25	$ 25	1	1

b. Where no State association exists, but all dancers are in one State:

No more than three votes are authorized to any one regional or area association;

Scope of Organization	Approx. % of State's S/D Represented	Annual Dues	Directors Authorized	Votes Authorized
State	51/75	$ 75	3	3
Regional or area	26/50	$ 50	2	2
Regional or area	5/25	$ 25	1	1

c. Where regional or area associations have defined area in parts of two or more adjacent States:

Use the sum total of the percent of square dancers represented in each State the regional or area association has members in to determine the number of votes it may be authorized. Example - Fox River Valley Association has members in three States. It represents 20% of the dancers in State A, 25% of the dancers in State B and 10% of the dancers in State C for a total of 55% - it may be authorized three votes. However, should this authorization result in more than a total of four votes being assigned to any of the States involved, or more than a total of three votes being assigned in any region or area, the matter will be resolved by the Membership Committee.

Scope of Organization	Approx. % of State's S/D Represented	Annual Dues	Directors Authorized	Votes Authorized

4. TABLES FOR AFFILIATE'S DUES, DIRECTORS and VOTING RIGHT: (continued)

- d. Each director is authorized one vote;
- e. No more than a total of four votes is authorized in any one State;
- f. If the State association is eligible for fewer than four votes; the remaining votes are available to the regional and area association in the State, if they are not members of the State association;
- g. If a State association does not wish to affiliate with USDA, area or regional associations from that State may do so. If at a later date the State association becomes an Affiliate of USDA, the area or regional association(s) may have to yield its/their USDA Affiliate Membership;
- h. Where there is no State association, the regional and area associations may claim up to a total of three votes. If at a later date a State association is formed and becomes an Affiliate of USDA, the Membership Committee will make new authorizations based on Table a. and the new percentage of square dancers represented in the State by each organization involved.

5. ASSOCIATE MEMBER DUES, DIRECTORS and VOTING RIGHTS

- a. Associate Member Annual dues: $25 No Voting Rights

6. PROCEDURE FOR MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE'S REVIEW:

- a. The Membership Committee shall consist of the USDA President and the four Regional Vice Presidents;
- b. Documents submitted are reviewed by the Regional Vice President concerned for completeness and general conformity with USDA's goals and purposes. Any questions are reconciled with the applicant's President. When the documents are in order, they are forwarded intact to the USDA Membership Committee for approval. Upon approval, the USDA President will send a letter of conditional acceptance to the applicant indicating eligibility to participate in the USDA insurance program at the affiliate rate starting the date of conditional acceptance and to participate in all other USDA programs. The Executive Committee will ratify the Membership Committee's action at their first meeting following. Final acceptance rests with the USDA Board of Directors at the annual meeting immediately following the conditional acceptance. An applicant for Affiliate Membership should be present at the annual meeting to answer any questions of the Board. If the applicant is absent and the questions cannot be resolved, final acceptance could be delayed or denied.

7. EFFECT OF NON-PAYMENT OF ANNUAL DUES OR SPECIAL ASSESSMENT

- a. Affiliate / Associate Members annual dues are payable to the USDA Treasurer on or before January 1;
- b. Affiliates enrolled in the USDA insurance program should remit their dues on or before October 1 to ensure availability of their Certificate of Insurance by January 1;
- c. Affiliates will be sent an "Annual Dues Notice" sixty days before payment is required; ten days after the date payable a "Past Due Reminder" will be sent to each organization still unpaid with a warning that if payment is not received within sixty days after the date due it will be dropped from membership for non-payment of dues; a copy of such notices will be sent to the USDA President and the Regional Vice President concerned;
- d. in the event a special assessment is voted by the board of Directors, a notice will be sent indicating the amount due and when payable; the follow-up procedure indicted above for dues will also be used for special assessments with the same penalty for non-payment of assessment;
- e. An Affiliate dropped from membership for nonpayment of dues or special assessments may be reinstated by submitting a letter requesting reinstatement, with a check in payment of any charges theretofore accrued or unpaid, to their Regional Vice President who will initiate a review as in the foregoing rule 4.b.

8. PROCEDURE FOR SECRET BALLOTING IN ELECTIONS

The Secretary will distribute, to the accredited Directors, ballots preprinted with the names of the nominees for each office and having space for additional nominations from the floor. As additional nominations are made, the presiding officer will spell the nominee's names for the voters so they can write them in on the ballots. When all nominations are in, the presiding officer will announce the nominations are closed and instruct the voters to mark their ballots. When the balloting is closed, the presiding officer will instruct the appointed tellers to collect the ballots and retire to a secluded location to count them while the meeting proceeds to other business. When the tellers have completed their counting, they will return to the meeting room and quietly give their written report to the presiding officer who will announce the results at the first convenient break in the progress of the meeting. If there is no possibility that a recount may be ordered, the presiding officer may then order that the ballots be destroyed.
